

Claudia Mora
Economic Development Director

Claudia Mora joined the City in 2012 with over 20 years of experience in economic development and financial services. She began her career in the City of San Antonio, where as an Economic Development Manager she assisted in business recruitment efforts which brought approximately 2,000 new jobs and spurred an estimated $150 million in investment. She was also instrumental in the development of an economic development master plan for the City and assisted the City Planning Commission in the development of economic development goals for the City's master plan. Ms. Mora also has over ten years' experience working as a senior tax professional in the private sector. During her time at AT&T alone, Ms. Mora saved the company an average of $13 million annually with tax credits and incentives. Ms. Mora received her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from St. Mary's University and holds a Master of Arts in Urban Studies from Trinity University. In 2005 she received her Economic Developer Certification from the International Economic Development Council.
