

Sandy Underwood served as Assistant Library Director of Leon Valley since March of 2014 and in January of 2015 assumed the position as Director. Prior, Ms. Underwood spent seven years as the Director of the Liberty Hill Public Library in Central Texas. In 2008, Ms. Underwood was selected as one of 30 librarians to receive the Professional Education for Librarians in Small Communities (PELSC) grant, which entailed getting her Masters Degree in Library and Information Science from Texas Woman's University. She is a graduate of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, holding a Bachelor of Science in Human Nutrition. Ms. Underwood maintains active memberships with the American Library Association, the Public Library Association, and the Texas Library Association, where she served two terms on the TexShare Outreach & Instruction Working Group. Always active in her community, she's also served her former home city of Liberty Hill as Christmas Festival Chair and on the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

Ms. Underwood is the proud mother of two daughters, both living in Austin. When not working on library projects, Ms. Underwood can be found in her garden or pool, enjoying life with her husband.
